

Biography

John Saunders

Vice President, Europe, Middle East, Africa and India
Ascend Performance Materials
Mont-Sant-Guibert, Belgium

John Saunders serves as vice president of Europe, the Middle East, Africa and India for Ascend Performance Materials. He has over 30 years of experience in the plastics industry with expertise in international leadership and business development. Mr. Saunders joined Ascend in 2013 as business director of Europe before moving into his current role in 2018.

Previously, he was head of sales within BASF's engineering plastics unit. His experience also includes commercial efforts for Allied Signal's nylon business and with Chevron Phillips Chemical Company. He holds a degree in mechanical engineering from Cambridge.

John Saunders serves as vice president of Europe, the Middle East, Africa and India for Ascend Performance Materials.